THIRD REFORC CONFERENCE MAY 16–18, 2013 BERLIN

Hosted by the Interdisciplinary Centre
'Middle Ages - Renaissance - Early Modern Period'

Connecting Academics

The Reformation Research Consortium, RefoRC, as the academic department within Refo500, connects academics and supports them in their research activities, by bringing those Refo500 partners together that focus on interconfessional, interdisciplinary and international research.

Short Papers and General Attendance

The conference is open to individual short paper presentations (20 minutes presentation) and to thematic sessions of two or three short papers. While we encourage papers on the conference theme, papers can also focus on all disciplines related to the 16th century reformations, such as arts, philosophy, law, history, theology etc., independent of the theme of the plenary papers. It is also possible to attend the conference without giving a paper.

Short paper proposals should be sent via the registration form on www.reforc.com before February 15, 2013.

Theme of Plenary Papers

The topic for plenary papers of the Third RefoRC conference will be "Anthropological Reformations – Anthropology in the Era of Reformation". Our aim is to engage in an interdisciplinary discussion about the establishment and debates on anthropological concepts and their changes in the age of the Reformation: How do anthropological concepts touch theological questions such as the freedom of will or the human likeness to God? In which ways is there a reflection on emotions? How is scientific knowledge received by theologians? How is contemporary thought on the conditio humana presented in literature and poetry? These are only a few possible topics. We hope that the interdisciplinary scope of the conference will open up new perspectives on anthropological reformations and anthropology in the era of Reformation.

Plenary Speakers include

- Klaus Bergdolt (Cologne)
- Jutta Eming (Berlin)
- Wolfgang Fuhrmann (Vienna)
- Ronnie Po-chia Hsia (Penn State)
- Risto Saarinen (Helsinki)
- Notger Slenczka (Berlin)
- Johan Verberckmoes (Louvain)
- Anna Vind (Copenhagen)
- Elke Anna Werner (Berlin)
